

Kortnie Chavez
Director, HR Business Partner
Atrium Health Navicent

Kortnie Chavez currently serves as the Director HR Business Partner for Atrium Health Navicent. Her primary role is to work with the organization's leadership team to help guide and communicate overall company strategy and workplace initiatives. A Colorado native, she relocated from Wyoming before enthusiastically embracing Atrium's mission to improve health, elevate hope and advance healing - for all.

Kortnie is an experienced executive with a vibrant background in operations, behavioral health administration, communications, marketing, compliance, human resources, and organizational leadership. She has a professional background ranging from finance and human resources to case management and organizational leadership in a chief operations capacity. In addition, she has experience with policy and procedure implementation on a federal, state and local level, government monitoring and program auditing, budget administration, and adult and youth caseload management.

A self-professed life-long learner, Kortnie holds a BS in Business Administration from the University of Northern Colorado, an MBA from Regis University, a SHRM-CP from the Society of Human Resources Management, a Professional in Human Resources certification from the Human Resource Certification Institute and an HR compliance certificate through the Mitchell Hamline School of Law.
